This week's birthdays: Jeffrey Martin, Allyson Cummings, Jennie Carpenter, Quinton Carpenter

Food Bank: Let's fill those boxes and show gratitude to God by sharing with our neighbour the blessings we have been given.

Next Saturday (2 November), the 139th meeting of the Diocesan Synod takes place at the Cathedral. Parish delegates/alternates are Jesse Smith, Pat Margison, Judy Clark, Bonnie Sparks and Cindy Derksen.

The Synod Office is organizing an overnight Advent retreat. It will be held in Rothesay Friday/Saturday 13-14 December. Leader will be the gifted Bishop Sandra Fyfe of Nova Scotia/PEI. Register at <https://anglican.nb.ca/events>.

The familiar blue Seafarers' Mission boxes are now appearing in our churches. They solicit donations for seafarers from distant parts who arrive at the port of Saint John. Donations are unwrapped and financial donations are also accepted. Learn more about the Seafarers' Mission by visiting their website at <https://www.sjseafarers.com>.

Collect Of The Day

Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people
and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery,
free us from the tyranny of sin and death,
and by the leading of your Spirit
bring us to our promised land;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Next Talking Tuesday discussion (which is this coming Tuesday 29 October) will be on the conundrum of Bad Things Happening to Good People: 2:00 PM at the Parish Centre and 7:00 PM at St. Luke's.

Vestry have appointed Marilyn Wilson as the parish treasurer in place of Max Hutchison. We are grateful to Max for putting parish bookkeeping on a coherent footing.

Vestry have created written sales contracts for use in selling cemetery lots (unsold lots are few) and set the lot price in both cemeteries at $350.

Cindy Derksen, parish envelope secretary, reminds us that while we can use Richmond envelopes at any point in the parish, we should not use them at Woodstock services, and vice versa.

Next Thursday (31 October), being the eve of All Saints Day, Maria and Philip are hosting kids, parishioners and friends at the Rectory. Afternoon tea will be served 2-4 pm & Evening refreshments 7-9:30. COSTUMES OPTIONAL but prizes for the best! Will YOU dare to be there?

For another month parishioners are asked to participate in Operation Christmas Child by filling the familiar shoe boxes with small items useful or interesting to a girl, boy or either.

This week's Diocesan e-News carries an encouraging story of the impact of the mobile medical clinic in our companion diocese of Ho in Ghana. The clinic was established with financial support from our Vestry and from individual parishioners.

It was good to see several folk of the Rich/Wood parishes taking part in administering the recent provincial election. Unlike the neighbouring republic, we were spared rioting, ballot "theft" and police snipers posted on the roof.

Gospel Reading

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO MARK

- They came to Jericho.
- As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.
- When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"
- Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"
- Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here."
- And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you."
- So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.
- Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?"
- The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again."
- Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well."
- Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Mark 10:46-52

Prayer over the Gifts

God of constant love,
you have guided your people
in all times and ages.

May we who offer you our praise today
always be ready to follow where you lead;
we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Psalm 34:1-8 (19-22)
Book of Common Prayer (BCP - Red Book)
Page 369

1. I will always give thanks unto the Lord; his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.
3. O praise the Lord with me, and let us magnify his Name together.
4. I sought the Lord, and he heard me; yea, he delivered me out of all my fears.
5. O look unto him and be lightened; and faces shall not be ashamed.
6. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him; yea, and saved him out of all his troubles.
7. The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
8. O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
19. Great are the troubles of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of all
20. He keepeth all his bones, so that not one of them is broken.
21. But misfortune shall slay the ungodly; and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.
22. The Lord delivereth the souls of his servants; and all they that put their trust in him shall not be destitute.

Prayer List

First Reading

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF JOB

- Then Job answered the Lord: "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
- 'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?'
- Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
- 'Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.'
- I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."
- And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.
- Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.
- The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys.
- He also had seven sons and three daughters.
- He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren happuch.
- In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.
- After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations.
- And Job died, old and full of days.

Second Reading

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

- Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever.
- Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.
- For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.
- Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself.
- For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 7:23-28
