The Peace

The Peace occurs after the prayerful confession of sins and absolution from the priest, when worshippers are called on to demonstrate their reconciliation. They do this by greeting their pew neighbours with words – “The peace of Christ” – and a handshake.

The intention of the Peace is good and uplifting and even necessary. But it is a ritual that has completely got out of hand. During the exchange of the Peace at St Hilda's chapel, all hell broke loose. Worshippers struggled over pews to shake hands will all and sundry, one woman lost her footing and fell, and there was much hugging and catching up with neighbourhood news, commiserating about the previous night's football match, extending of invitations to dinner or drinks at the pub, and forays into the state of the economy. The Peace is anything but. It is the Great Interruption that fragments the solemnity of the service.

✓ The bishop remains heavily involved in trying to save Safe Harbour Youth Transition House, Saint John

✓ In 2015 over 700 children and youth were involved in Camp Medley, Camp Brookwood and other diocesan summer programs. The goal for 2016 is 900.

✓ Parish contributions to the Diocese's budget for 2015 totalled 103% of what was asked (because of some parishes making up deficiencies in earlier years). This is encouraging. (Richmond is always in a position to pay its full allocation on time.)

Cheques to assist Carleton County's support for Syrian refugees should be made out to St Gertrude's Parish – Refugee Fund. They may be dropped off at the parish office (105 Union St, Woodstock E7M 2W4).

Part of Bishop Edwards' vision is Christian education for all laity. He has begun by making a new call for layreaders and offering new training. View the new website for layreaders: <http://anglican.nb.ca/wp/layreaders/> View the bishop's video call for and to layreaders: <http://anglican.nb.ca/wp/layreaders/2015/12/09/bishop-davids-video-message-to-layreaders/> Fittingly, the new warden of layreaders is for the first time a lay-person.

Another aspect of the Bishop's renewal vision is increased youth membership in the diocesan synod. There will be a diocesan synod on Saturday, 5 November. The bishop has written all parishes to urge them to elect a younger person (age 16-26) as one of their three synod delegates at the forthcoming annual meeting. The next diocesan synod will consider a proposal to encourage this.

When writing a will, do not leave money to a specific congregation as individual congregations are not incorporated. The way to handle it is to leave money to the parish for the purpose of supporting a particular congregation or house of worship, if that is what you want. For Camp Brookwood, you would leave money to the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton for the use of Camp Brookwood.
