In these weeks when in-person collective worship is suspended, the Parish is still called on to pay its bills. Fortunately, some parishioners use the e-offering service. A set amount is automatically deducted from their bank account and credited to the parish, to the PWRDF, to Camp Brookwood, etc as they have directed. Deductions are weekly or monthly, according to choice, and go through even when Sunday worship is cancelled by storms and viruses. If you are able to help the parish financially to pull through this crisis, get in touch with Cindy Derkson (375-4642). You will need your bank account number (if you still use cheques, it's the numbers on the bottom of a cheque) and the amount of your automatic contribution to the parish general fund and any others you support. In the best of times, a parish's finances are touch-and-go. These are times of challenge.

The most common non-Biblical text that Christian composers have set to music over the ages is the Requiem, the service for the remembrance of the dead. Its traditional text is in Latin. One of its familiar sections is known as the Lux æterna ("eternal light", as in the phrase "May light perpetual shine on her"). The English composer Edward Elgar (1857-1934) gave the world one of the most striking settings for this text. Hear it once and it is a gift with you forever:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IwdeqVmXlHk>

Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine, cum sanctis tuis in aeternum, quia pius es. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. May light eternal shine upon them, O Lord, with Thy saints forever, for Thou art kind. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Forthcoming events:

- On Saturday 18 April, the parish will have a mission focus discussion with Shawn Branch at the Parish Centre.
- On Sunday 31 May, Holy Trinity hosts a liturgy of the old carpet service. Not to be missed.

You can be glad to know that Compassion Fund continues to do good work responding to immediate needs in our neighbourhoods. Contact Wendell, Louise or Nancy C.

The parish has received bequests under the will of the late Doris Kennedy Gartley Scott (1921-2016) of Centreville and several others, in this case to support the St John's Cemetery fund. When writing your own will, do not leave money to a specific congregation as individual congregations are not incorporated. The way to handle it is to leave money to the parish for the purpose of supporting a particular congregation or house of worship, if that is what you want. For Camp Brookwood, you would leave money to the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton for the use of Camp Brookwood.

To add a name (with permission) to the parish prayer list, speak to Pat Margison (328-8146) or Wendell Parkinson (325-9519).
