30 April 2020

As we look hopefully to gathering in our congregations at some point in May, those able to get out for a drive can view tokens of God's renewing love in the form of a carpet of bluebells just coming on display at Ralph & Rosanne Carpenter's house and the thousands of spring bulbs that will bloom next week in the roadside ditches at Ernest & Heather How's farm.

More neighbourhood tokens of spring -- Holy Trinity has received an external clean-up and May baskets have appeared on doorknobs in the vicinity of Jackson Falls.
A fiddlehead watch is underway.

Though we are forbidden from entering our houses of worship, did you know that every Sunday at 12 noon a largish but well-distanced congregation has gathered at St Mark's to ring the bell for 10 minutes and greet one another?

While the Richmond e-News has no immediate parish gatherings to report, never have there been so many opportunities to worship from the comfort of our own kitchens.

The same technology that allows us to tune into services from Moncton or Fredericton allows us to continue our Vestry and committee meetings and Bible discussions.

Watch this space for a report from the Vestry.

In these weeks/months when in-person collective worship is suspended, the Parish is still called on to pay bills. Some parishioners help by using the e-offering service. A set amount is automatically deducted from their bank account and credited to the parish, to the PWRDF, to Camp Brookwood, etc as they have directed. Deductions are weekly or monthly, according to choice, and go through even when Sunday worship is cancelled by storms and viruses. If you are able to help the parish to pull through this crisis financially, get in touch with Cindy Derkson (375-4642). You will need your bank account number (if you still use cheques, it's the numbers on the bottom of a cheque) and the amount of your automatic contribution to the parish general fund and any others you support. In the best of times, a parish's finances are touch-and-go. These are times of challenge.

Forthcoming events:

- On Sunday 31 May, Holy Trinity hosts a liturgy of the old carpet service. Not to be missed.

You can glad to know that Compassion Fund continues to do good work responding to immediate needs in our neighbourhoods. Contact Wendell, Louise or Nancy C.

The parish has received bequests under many wills. They are helping it survive financially at this strange time. When writing a will, do not leave money to a specific congregation as individual congregations are not incorporated. The way to handle it is to leave money to the parish for the purpose of supporting a particular congregation or house of worship, if that is what you want. For Camp Brookwood, you would leave money to the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton for the use of Camp Brookwood.

To add a name (with permission) to the parish prayer list, speak to Pat Margison (328-8146) or Wendell Parkinson (325-9519).
