In view of the covid situation the Wardens announce that there will be no in-person services in the Parish this Sunday (24 January). Many on-line services are available in the diocese: <https://nb.anglican.ca/.../c.../pages/worship-and-prayer-> at-home A former rector recommends services from the National Cathedral (Washington): <https://cathedral.org/worship/>

If you tuned in last Sunday you heard St Paul's "Epistle to the Americans".

Despite new hope brought by yesterday's proceedings in Washington, a covid winter is upon us, nights are long and government orders that "people" are to stay away from others means us. At such a time, a kind-hearted parishioner writes: In times of loneliness during this pandemic and in the absence of places to worship in our Parish, I'd like to share my contact information with anyone who may want to just talk, share a warm conversation, or simply be together -- but at a distance. I'd like everyone to know that I'm here for them, and if at anytime there is something someone needs, or simply a friend to please open up and share your stories. I care for all of you, all people, all congregations & I continue to pray for this Parish, the Parish of Richmond. Be Kind, Be Well & Stay Safe. GOD Loves YOU.

The week of prayer for Christian Unity concludes on Monday with a service at: <https://www.oikoumene.org/news/wcc-will-host-online-celebration-for-week-of-prayer-for-christian-unity>

Find a great sermon by Bishop Hockin from last Sunday as follows (beginning at minute 12:00):

Among the riches of the internet is the possibility of a winter ashram-style retreat, 12-14 February: see

Remember that there's a convenient way to get a cheery greeting to someone stuck in hospital. The hospital will deliver it. Check out: <https://en.horizonnb.ca/home/facilities-and-services/services/other-services/send-a-message-to-a-patient.aspx>

Please consider benefitting the “Corporation of the Anglican Parish of Richmond” in your will. The parish has received many bequests over the years, without the interest on which we could not make it financially.
