Wednesday Evening Prayer services resumed quietly last night at St Mark's. It was the first service in the building since being put on a new foundation. Things are holding together well. It was also the 114th anniversary of the building's consecration by Bishop Richardson in 1907. For a flashback to the well-remembered St Mark's centennial year, see photo.

St Mark's and the parish are grateful for the stream of spontaneous donations arriving in recent weeks for the foundation project. Some have been from distant places and some from non-Anglicans.

It is pleasant to note the presence of Robyn Cuming among us, visiting around with former parishioners.

Holy Trinity will soon be announcing the date of its annual flower service. The congregation are also considering a service for blessing animals and a parish picnic.

Why we do not applaud in church -- "Wherever applause breaks out in the liturgy because of some human achievement, it is a sure sign that the essence of liturgy has totally disappeared and been replaced by a kind of religious entertainment. Such attraction fades quickly - it cannot compete in the market of leisure pursuits, incorporating as it increasingly does various forms of religious titillation." (Pope Benedict, in The Spirit of the Liturgy). For a thoughtful Protestant perspective, see <https://www.reformedworship.org/article/december-1988/whats-wrong-applauding-church>

Each Wednesday evening since the covid crisis began, the Archbishop and others meet on Zoom for a brief service of Litany. Find the Zoom link at <https://nb.anglican.ca/events/litany-6/2021-02-17>

Please consider benefitting the "Corporation of the Anglican Parish of Richmond" in your will. The parish has received many bequests over the years, without the interest on which we could not make it financially.
