On this Sunday (13 November) Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes are due at the churches. For collection of boxes from Holy Trinity and St Mark’s, please co-ordinate with Bonnie Sparks.

Monday is the King’s birthday (74).

Also this Monday (14 November), parish Prayer Time resumes at St John’s, 6:30.

On this Tuesday morning, an Advent book study begins at the Parish Centre, 10:30. Everyone is welcome to attend and prepare ourselves for Advent with this study of Katie Dawson's All Earth is Waiting: Good News for God's Creation at Advent.

Next Thursday (17 November) Vestry meets at Holy Trinity, 7 pm. Open to all.

If not attending next Thursday's Vestry meeting, then why not tune in to Ian Baird's talk on The Holy War of Bishop John Richardson, 7pm? Bishop Richardson, who consecrated St Mark's (1907) and Holy Trinity (1929), was a young, liberal, evangelical bishop at the time of World War I. Like other bishops, he had great success in encouraging Anglican men to go to war. Baird's talk at the Fredericton Regional Museum will be about Richardson's "language of holy war in his theological response to the 1914-1918 conflict". Request a Zoom link to listen on-line from frmoperations@gmail.com

Karaoke came belatedly to St Mark's last Sunday. One of the attached photos shows a layreader getting into the groove. The other shows two of our parish layreaders being re-licenced. Long may they reign.

Forced by covid, a house church stopped meeting in person, moved entirely on-line, developed an international congregation and has never looked back. Hear their pastor talk about transitioning to on-line community on Monday 28 November, 8 pm. The Atlantic School of Theology is making this free talk available on Zoom.
